

In honor of the eighty-first birthday of Her Majesty Queen Sirikit on the twelfth of August, 2013, the Office of Agricultural Museum and Culture Museum of Kasetsart University together with the Queen Sirikit Department of Sericulture of the Ministry of Agriculture and Cooperatives and the Department of Cultural Promotion of the Ministry extend a cordial invitation to attend the opening ceremony of:

The Museum of the Dress of the Tai Peoples and of the Peoples of ASEAN

At which Professor Prasert na Nagara will preside, on Thursday, the eighth of August, 2013, at nine o'clock in the morning at the Office of Agricultural Museum and Culture Museum of Kasetsart University. This museum is being established with the cooperation of fabric museums of ASEAN and of Tai peoples. There will be a splendid show of the dress of Tai peoples and ASEAN peoples arranged by Ajan Oratai Pholdi and her team, a special lecture, research reports on the dress of the peoples of ASEAN, and a presentation of research concerning the evolution of Tai dress by Ajan Oratai Pholdi, the Director of the Office of Agricultural Museum and Culture Museum of Kasetsart University.

Tung

Pu Yi

Sui

Zhuang

Tai Ya

Do not miss this opportunity to see displays of garments a century or more old of ASEAN peoples, particularly those of Tai peoples such as the Tung, the Sui, the Pu Yi, the the Zhuang, the Tai Leu, the Tai Mao, the Tai Dam, the Tai Daeng, the Tai Eu Lai, Tai Ya and the Tai Ye from the collections of Ajan Oratai Pholdi and other well-known fabric collectors.

A cordial invitation is also extended to attend the international seminar:

“ASEAN Fabrics and Dress”

Beginning at nine o'clock in the morning of Friday, the ninth of August, 2013, at the Office of Agricultural Museum and Culture Museum of Kasetsart University, at which renowned ASEAN scholars will present their research work.